

Definitions of the statuses

CODE	DESCRIPTION	DEFINITION	START DATE	END DATE
AC	Active	This status is given to entities that do not meet the conditions of five other statuses. In concrete terms, it means that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A legal person under Belgian law acquires this status after it has acquired its legal personality;</li> <li>• Organisations without legal personality acquire the status 'AC' after they have been directly created;</li> <li>• A legal person under foreign law acquires this status if it has a registered office or branch in Belgium;</li> <li>• Any registered natural person, both resident and non-resident, and any registered legal person governed by foreign law acquires this status if it has an authorisation or capacity that activates the entity in the event that the authorisation or capacity indicates that the legal person or natural person is engaged in activities in Belgium.</li> </ul>	01.01.1800	31.12.9999
AF	Closed	This status is used when one and the same entity is assigned two or more enterprise numbers, or in other words when there is a 'double'. Based on a specific procedure, one number is kept and the other(s) are closed. These closed numbers will then have the status 'AF'. This status may occur when a registered entity with status 'BK', 'AC', 'ST' or 'JU' is replaced.	01.01.1800	31.12.9999
AN	Cancelled	When an entity is registered in the CBE by mistake, while it should in fact not have been registered, it is possible to cancel the entity and the accompanying company number. This way, there is no trace of the registration or of the underlying data groups. Such entities have status 'AN'. This status can occur when an entity with status 'BK', 'AC' or 'JU' is cancelled.	01.01.1800	31.12.9999
BK	Identified	This status is used for registered entities natural persons and foreign legal persons without a registered office or branch in Belgium that are obliged to identify themselves to a Belgian authority. These registered entities are assigned a company number and acquire the status 'Identified' until they are assigned a capacity or authorisation that activates the entity if necessary.	27.11.2009	31.12.9999
JU	Legal creation	This status is used for entities whose articles of association have already been drawn up but which have not yet acquired legal personality. This status is used when notaries electronically deposit the deeds of an entity via the e-depot application. At the moment of deposit of the deed, the status will change to 'AC'. This status never occurs for a registered entity natural person.	01.01.1800	31.12.9999
ST	Stopped	This status is linked to legal situations indicating that the entity no longer exists or is active. This status can only be combined with certain legal situations described in the document containing the definitions of legal statuses.	01.01.1800	31.12.9999
